

Ruusupuisto

18.4.2023

Tuomo Virtanen, Special education teacher, PhD

Department of Teacher Education

Niilo Johannes Mäki (December 14, 1902, Tampere – December 27, 1968, Jyväskylä) was a Finnish psychologist. He was one of the most developers of neuropsychology and special education in Finland. In 1936, he was appointed as Finland's first psychology professor (acting) at the University of Jyväskylä's Teacher Training College. From 1948 to 1968, he served as the first professor of special education (formerly known as "protective and corrective education") in the Nordic countries at the University of Jyväskylä.

In 1964, he was awarded an honorary doctorate in education.

Wake up call 2020

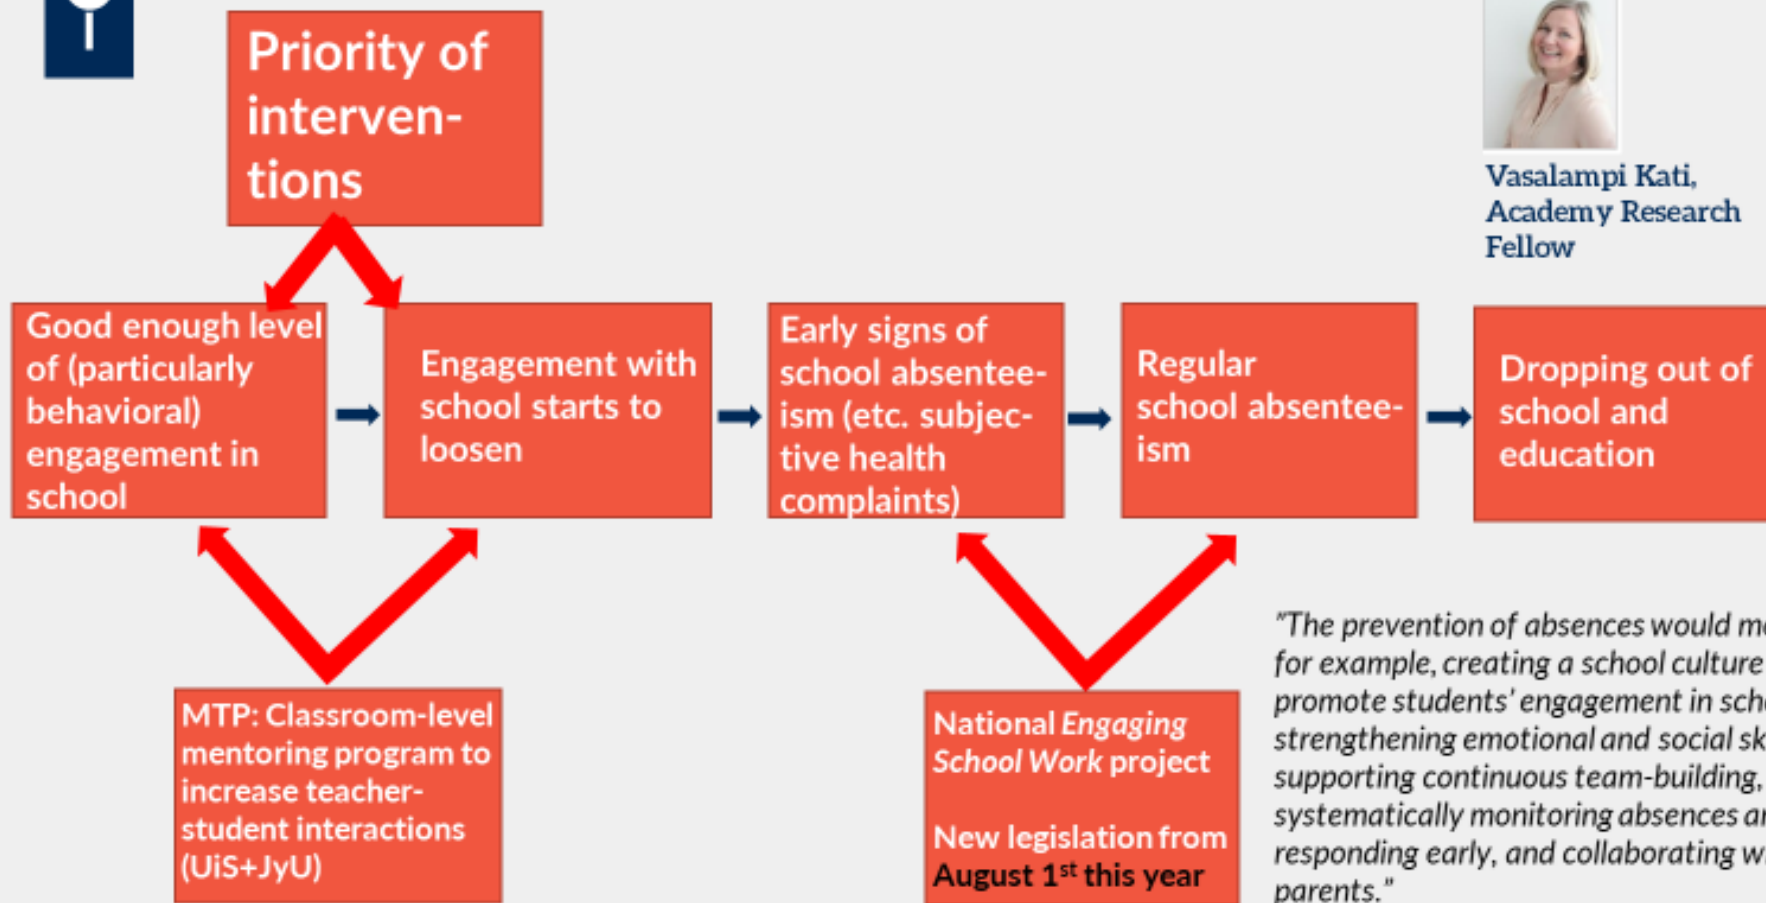

School Nonattendance in Finland

What do we do regarding school engagement in the Faculty of Education and Psychology in JyU?

Vasalampi Kati,
Academy Research
Fellow

Stability of social support during school transitions: Associations with truancy and not completing upper secondary education in normative time^{*}

Tuomo Virtanen^{*}, Kati Vasalampi, Marja-Kristiina Lerkkanen, Jenni Pelkonen, Anna-Maija Poikkeus

University of Jyväskylä, Faculty of Education and Psychology, P.O. Box 35, FI, 40014, Finland

